MISS BENNETT'S SURPRISE.

The steady downpour of rain yesterday rendered the Harlem track a sea of slush. It was a deceptive track, for while it was sloppy on top the footing underneath was hard and firm. This favored many horses that cannot extend themselves freely in deep sticky going and was responsible in a great measure for the victories of Miss Bennett, Charley O'Brien and Flying Torpedo. The star event of the day was the fourth race, a dash of one and one-eighth miles for four-year-olds and upward, which was thought to be almost a gift to Pink Coat, he being held at odds on in the betting. The Derby winner of '98 put up a disappointing performance, and was hopelessly beaten off at the end. The winner turned up in Charley O'Brien, the rank outsider in the betting, which assumed the lead at flag fall and remained in front to the end. Strangest closed on him fast in the last sixteenth and appeared as if he was going to beat him out, but Charley O'Brien had just a little left and stood his bid off with a slight rally in the closing strides. Pink Coat ran within hailing distance of the leader up to the head of the stretch, where he tired badly and finished a thoroughly distressed horse. His race was nowhere near the form he is capable of showing. Boney Boy ran well up to the head of the stretch and then fell away beaten.

Many that thought Miss Bennett could not negotiate the sloppy going were most beautifully deceived. She not only ran well through it but stood a drive for an eighth of a mile, and showed much gameness, something she was not thought to possess. The talent was about divided in its choice between The Lady and Joe Martin, as Money Mues, Burnie Bunton and Miss Bennett were supposed to be unable to run well in the going. After a tedious delay at the post in which Joe Martin persistently refused to break, he was finally left, Dwyer sending the others off to a fair start. It was Burnie Bunton and Miss Bennett in close company up to the bend for home, where the former skinned the rail and gained a big advantage on the latter. It seemed very much like Burnie Bunton's race at the last eighth post, but Coburn rode Miss Bennett vigorously and finally got her close up to the lead in the last fifty yards. The two fought it out hard from here to the wire, but Miss Bennett showed the most staying power and finally passed under the wire a half length in the lead, while Burnie Bunton beat The Lady six lengths for second place. Money Mues could not extend himself a little bit through the sloppy going and was beaten off at the end. The Lady ran far below expectations, as it was supposed the track was just to her liking.

The hurdle race over five jumps at a mile and quarter was taken in a canter by Refugee which fenced cleanly throughout and won as his rider pleased by eight lengths from Mazo, he beating Dick Furber for second place. Eva Moe fell heavily over the second jump while Saintly lost his rider at the third. Mazo fenced well throughout but tired badly in the last quarter.

The day's opener, a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, went to the favorite, Aladdin, but not until after a spirited brush with Bragg in the last fifty yards. Crescent City led by a big margin up to the last sixteenth, where he tired and quit and Aladdin assumed what appeared like an easy winning lead, but along in here Bragg came with a rush and it required all of Coburn's skill to throw Aladdin under the wire first by a head. Amote finished third six lengths away. It was a poor field.

Pyrrho on his known liking for soft going was thought to be the best in the fifth race—a six furlongs scramble for two-year-olds and such he proved to be. Dodie S. and Hat Mitchell both led him up to the final eighth, where he gradually wore them down and won with the utmost ease by three lengths. Dodie S. finished second five in front of Huzzah. Hat Mitchell died away in the final eighth. Whiffit showed early speed.

Flying Torpedo took the track at flag fall in the last race, a dash of one and one-eighth miles, and held the lead for the entire journey, winning none too handily by three-fourths of a length from Banish, which beat Kentucky Babe three for second place. Banish closed up fast in the last eighth but could not quite reach and was himself about as tired as the winner when passing under the wire. Kentucky Babe had enough when a furlong out. Little Elkin closed up much ground in the last quarter.

Joe Martin's bad conduct at the post led to an order refusing his entry in the future.

Hardy Durham has arrived at the track with Operator, Merito and others.

Jockey Landry, fresh from the New York tracks, is a new addition to the local talent.

Mr. Charles F. Price, business manager of the California Jockey Club tracks, John M. Peters, treasurer of the New Memphis Jockey Club, and George Arnold of Memphis, after whom the fast racer now here was named, were among the visitors at the track yesterday.

In regard to sending Edward E. to his stable Tuesday afternoon Presiding Judge Hamilton stated at Harlem Park yesterday that he had no intention of setting a precedent in the matter of disposing of horses that run away before a race. Colonel Hamilton explained that in Edward E.'s case the young boy in the saddle was thoroughly exhausted and unable to control the horse, consequently he feared the horse might run into the fence and severely injure little Morris and he believed it his duty and an act of humanity to release the boy from his perilous predicament.

MAYWOOD WEIGHTS.

The Maywood Handicap, a dash of a mile and a hundred yards, with $1,000 added, will be the special feature at Harlem Saturday. Yesterday Secretary Nathanson announced the weights assigned the horses engaged. They are as follows:

NO DECISION ABOUT SHAW.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Consideration of Shaw's ride on Blue Girl consumed nearly the entire session of the Jockey Club stewards, who met this afternoon. It was announced at the close that nothing had been done in the case and it is probable that Shaw will escape without even a reprimand. It is remarkable that of the number of contenders in that memorable race, which finished right on the heels of Whitney's filly, Sun Shower, Par Excellence, Flora Pomona and Lux Casta have performed

Time, 1:09%.

Winner—B. f. by Gold Crest—Madeline.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Gold Braid was easily best, came away strongly in the stretch and can beat better ones. She had worked five furlongs in one minute flat. Cassville's forward running was due to the muddy track and the same applies to Rocky. Cast Iron finished strongly, but was lame when going to the post. Batyah had no chance with a bad jockey, but finished fast. Electress was probably handicapped by the going.

Scratched—27738 Clipper, 109; Igniter, 108; 28152 Shepherd, 103; 27832 Happy, 101; 28071 Tenagra, 99; 28132 Linora, 94.

Overweights—Batyah, 1 pound; Major Tenny, 1.

Winner—B. c. by Wawekus—Hindogam.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Bowen ran from the rear to the front in a half mile showing brilliant form in the going. Barbara Frietchie finished very strongly after being pocketed around the stretch turn. Alfred Vargrave was a live one today and his race was in startling contrast to his previous effort. Himself was unable to last at the terrific pace but hung on well on account of his predelection for mud. Disturber, off badly, had no chance with his bad ride. Hammock was driving early to keep up. The track was too fast for him. He wants deep and slow going to show at his best. Maria Bolton ran a cracking good six furlongs. Maltster tired from the pace and also favors a slower track.

Scratched—28098 Somerset, 110; 27201 Harry McConn, 106; 28068 Dr. Riddle, 106; 28068 Wait Not, 106; 28102 Speedmast, 105; 27877 Thoroughbred, 92; 28153 Kid, 89.

Time, 1:16.

Winner—Ch. g. by Hastings—Leopoldina.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. O'Connor rode a very confident looking race on Leonid and evidently had a great deal in reserve. Major Daingerfield evidently favored the muddy going, finished resolutely and kept coming at the end. Setauket was well up for the first half, but was palpably outclassed. Par Excellence's showing was very poor and in great contrast to her last race. The mud probably accounts for her bad race.

Scratched—28180 Homestead, 108; Alabarch, 108; Blackstock, 108.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Blues led throughout under a pull and never being extended was eased almost to a walk at the finish. Monarka put up a splendid and game race, but was hopelessly outclassed by the winner. Autolight ran a very fair race for a mile and was then eased up, O'Connor seeing there was no chance to beat Monarka for second place.

Scratched—(28155) Water Color, 126; 28153 Terminus, 126; 28130 Nones, 108.

NO DECISION ABOUT SHAW.

very badly since and the race has become enveloped in a hopeless tangle as regards form. Blue Girl bled in her work at Saratoga, but that occurred before her good race with Goldsmith, consequently it was not regarded seriously. All the same she probably suffered from some affection or other and in view of her long continued siege of racing since early spring it is generally believed that the sister to Blues has gone stale and that it would be almost any odds on Endurance by Right to beat her in a match race at the present time, with a strong probability that the western filly has always been superior to the eastern champion filly.

The crack Sir Dixon colt Nones, winner of the last race today, ran in the colors—purple jacket and black cap—of P. Ryan, the western plunger, who is about the largest cash bettor the country has ever seen. He never bets markers, but carries with him at all times a roll of one thousand dollar bills, estimated on some days to amount to over one hundred thousand dollars. He bet the ring to a standstill on his new purchase and must have taken a fortune over the colt's victory. The price paid F. R. Hitchcock for him is reported to have been $8,000. Bowen, the impressive winner of the second race, also ran in his new owner's colors, Dryer & McGuire having bought him from his former owner, C. H. Smith.

MAY RACE AT LOUISVILLE.

A dispatch from Louisville to yesterday's Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune read as follows:

"Louisville is going to have a fall race meeting after all. At least, there is every indication to believe this, and the report is partly confirmed by the answer to a telegram which was sent last night to one of the principal men interested in the plan. This is Mr. J. J. Douglass, owner of the trotting track, who is now in Petoskey, Mich.

"The report gained currency yesterday afternoon that arrangements had been practically completed to open a fall meeting at Mr. Douglass' track, and that it might be extended into the coming winter. The story ran that Farmer and Hendrie, who control and operate the Canadian racing circuit, were the men most interested in the Louisville venture. Mr. Douglass was asked about the story by wire, and he replied last night in the following telegram.

"PETOSKEY, MICH., September 10.—Yes. Fort Erie people are negotiating for my track. Have wired me for terms, which have been given.

"J. J. DOUGLASS."

"There is every indication at present that the American Turf Congress people will make Louisville their headquarters during the coming fall and possibly early winter. Nearly every horse owner that has been racing on the Turf Congress tracks at St. Louis, Newport and the Canadian circuit will, it is claimed, be quartered at the Douglass track when the meeting begins."

"A prominent turfman who is familiar with the doings of all the race track officials of both factions says the fall meeting here will begin about the second week in October, as the Fort Erie and Delmar meetings will be over by that time.

"It is the intention of the St. Louis people to race at the Fair Grounds after the Delmar meeting," said the turfman, "but it is nearly the unanimous opinion of the turf people in St. Louis that the Fair Grounds will be closed under the racing laws of Missouri.

"Louisville will be the place all the horses and the entire Turf Congress will camp this fall, and I believe they will give the people some good racing here with their whole outfit to draw from."

VOLODYOVSKI BEATEN.

Mr. Whitney's Volodyovski was a strong favorite for the St. Leger at Doncaster, England, yesterday, but in a bruising finish was beaten by the outsider Doricles.

The betting previous to the start was 40 to 1 against Doricles, 10 to 1 against Volodyovski and 9 to 1 against Revenue.

Revenue led until going up the hill, when Cynical drew to the front and led to the stretch, Revenue again going to the front there. Doricles and Volodyovski, the latter ridden by Lester Reiff, then came up fast and passed Revenue, Doricles winning by a neck. Three lengths separated Volodyovski and Revenue, second and third horses respectively.

An objection was made to Doricles' winning on the ground of bumping, but it was overruled.

Winner—Br. c, by Belvidere—Vintage. Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Belvino, off running, displayed grand form in the going. He is fresh and good and evidently a much improved horse. Utopian lost ground at the start, being a slow beginner and was weakly handled. He closed a big gap and finished strongly and was probably best. Locket was favored by the going and benefited by a recent let up and ran above himself. Isia ran a bad race and quit almost to a walk in the last quarter. Fair Knight, off badly, was never in the hunt.

Scratched—(28179) Ethics, 126; 28098 Somerset, 123; 28153 Cervera, 118; Elegy, 113; 28206 Scotch Bush, 113; 28099 Cameron, 103; 27838 Ice Water, 90.

Winner—B. g, by Sir Dixon—Amy Davenport. Went to post at 4:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Nones was perfectly handled and is a wonder on the grass course. Louisville was lucky not to be forced to a faster pace in the first part of the race and lasted out gamely in consequence. She is evidently very partial to light weight. The slow early pace and weak finish that Shaw put up combined to defeat Terminus. A strong, hustling jockey like Bullman could hardly have lost on him. Knight of Rhodes ran well for a mile and was eased up in the last furlong and will do well over a distance. The slow pace enabled Alsike to be up with the field for the first mile.

 Went to post at 5:00. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Flying Torpedo went to the front at flag dip and was never afterward headed. He was tiring at the end but had enough left to beat Banish, which was in just as bad straits at the finish. The latter closed up on him in the last sixteenth, but faltered in the closing strides. Kentucky Babe, always well up, had enough when a furlong out. Little Elkin made up much ground in the last quarter. The others were always outrun.

Winner—Br. h, by Sir Dixon—Cherry Blossom.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. George B. Cox was well served by the going, was well ridden and the best. He ran around the field in the first half and won going away. Velasquez stayed longer than usual. He liked the going. Durrell should have been an easy second, but Narvaez eased him up at the finish. Accolade ran a good race under a very weak ride. Hengist was prominent to the stretch, then quit when he appeared like a winner. Corel was running a good race when she was pocketed. May Violet ran well for an eighth, then quit.

Winner—Br. m, by Chatham—Blue Vail.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Brown Vail was much the best. She was very poorly ridden and was crowded in against the rail at the three-eighths, but was so good that she could not be beaten. Two Annies ran her race and finished gamely. Kinloch Park reveled in the going and finished stoutly in a good race for him. Sauber ran the best race of the field save the winner under a poor ride. Robert Morrison ran well to the stretch. Birdie Stone seemingly could not get up an ordinary gallop. Robert W. showed speed until he broke down.

Scratched—(28114) Warren Point, 103.

Overweights—Kinloch Park, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f, by Pirate of Penzance—Sayonara.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Huntressa was lucky and best ridden. Talpa was best as it was run, but O'Brien forced O'Neill into the bad going in the stretch and kept Huntressa on the dry path. At that Talpa might have won with a strong finish. She was winning when O'Neill dropped her head to use the whip. Sambo was not shaken up in the early part of the race, as he must be to do his best. He showed a liking for the going and finished fast. Rose of Red was probably best at the weights, but she was given a bad ride. She was cut off at the start and lost five lengths thereby, then galloped up to the leaders easily. Hall then took her on the inside of the first pair in the deep going, where she was pocketed and cut off. Varner was not a contender.
No show betting on first four.

Winner—B. f, by Regalis—Lady Glyde.
Went to post at 4:09. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Alice Turner ran a game race. She was sore when going to the post and pulled up very lame. Van Hoorebeke was much the best, but was weakly ridden in the stretch. He had the race in hand at the stretch head, but swung too wide and then swerved into the soft mud while Alice Turner came on the good path he had abandoned. She seemingly fouled Van Hoorebeke in the last fifty yards. Ida Ledford finished strongly in the dry going. Prosper La Gai ran a fair race. Blink was sour, refused to break and failed to show much speed at any part of the race and sulked in the first quarter.

Overweights—Prosper La Gai, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. g, by Saracen—Alala H.
Went to post at 4:40. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Guide Rock was the only one of the contenders suitably placed. He liked the slop and made a runaway race of it. Tulla Fonso, smooth shod, did not get into her stride until half had been run. Miss Mae Day did not seem to relish the mud and quit after running a good six furlongs. Went to post at 5:10. At post 13 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Euterpe was best and best ridden. O'Brien rode a winning race all the way. Ignis put up a fine performance. He was much bothered by interference at the three-eighths from Grandma II. and Lady Curzon when he was going great guns. Dugan saved ground at the stretch turn and rode a capital race. Grandma II. was at home in the slop and did well. Lady Curzon was smooth shod and ran in bar plates. She could not extend herself in the going which is her forte. The others were not contenders.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Aladdin under a vigorous ride closed up fast in the last eighth, but had to be driven out to the last ounce to stall off Bragg's determined bid at the end. Went to post at 2:45. At post 17 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Miss Bennett finished stoutly through the last eighth and outgamed Burnie Bunton in the closing strides. Her victory was a surprise, as she was supposed not to run well in sloppy going. Burnie Bunton showed her usual speed, but tired in the last fifty yards. The Lady's race was much below her best form, especially since she was in going made to her order. She was badly outrun from start to finish. Money Muss could not extend himself in the going. Joe Martin refused to break and was left.

Overweights—Joe Martin, 4 pounds.

Miss Bennett, show, 4 to 5. Burnie Bunton, show, 7 to 10. The Lady, show, 2 to 5. Money Muss, show, 2 to 5. Joe Martin, show, 11 to 20.

ARCHER'S FINESSE.

Thousands of races have been won by finesse, and no jockey can possibly be in the first flight unless he be a diplomatist. Such was undoubtedly Fred Archer, who was the finest example ever yet seen, not even excepting Fordham, and for this reason—that whereas old George could tell up to the greatest nicety just what his own horse was doing, he was not so observant and keen a judge of how others were going, and this was where Archer's superiority asserted itself, as he could tell almost to a certainty how every other horse was going in a race as well as the one he was himself riding. We have already told the story of how he won many races, or rather stole them, including his wonderful displays on The Mate and Valour, on which horses he won the Ebor Handicap and Manchester Cup respectively, absolutely and entirely by wondrous strategy alone.

Possibly he once rode a more extraordinary race than either of these when winning the Singleton Stake at Goodwood on Trappist in 1878. As is well known, this race is decided over the New Mile. There were on this occasion five runners. Trappist and Dalham both carried 9 st. 5 lb., Lollypop 9 st. 3 lb., Placida 9 st. 2 lb. and Leopold, the other runner, 9 st. It was well known that both Lollypop and Trappist were immensely fast over five or six furlongs, but could not win in good company if asked to exceed that distance. This being the case, the race was considered a good thing for Dalham, a first class horse, capable of getting the distance.

Archer had, however, worked out in his fertile brain a bold plan of campaign, but without breathing a syllable of his intentions to a soul. Neither Captain Prime, the owner of Trappist, nor Captain Macell fancied the horse, thinking he had no chance of getting the course or beating Dalham, and but for Archer would not have backed him. As soon as he had weighed out Fred sought out the two captains, begging them to have a real dash on Trappist, as he had "worked out a way to beat Dalham," to use his own words. Both these gentlemen, profiting by former experience, had the profoundest faith in Archer; accordingly they had a "parcel" on Trappist, backing him from nearly three times the odds down to 3 to 1, and whereas Dalham threatened to be an odds on chance at one time, 2 to 1 was his starting price.

Undoubtedly every soul on the course who gave the matter consideration thought Archer would lay right back on Trappist, relying on one long run at the finish to utilize his marvelous speed. To the intense surprise of everyone who witnessed it, including the jockeys who rode in the race, and to the horror of those immediately connected with the horse, Archer jumped off as soon as the flag fell and went like blazes. Before the fact could be realized even, he was quite two hundred yards in front, and though at the finish his horse almost stopped and trotted he just kept him going, winning by three lengths.

Winner—B. h. by Free Knight—Lida Laroy. Went to post at 2:56. At post 8 minutes. Start bad. Won in a drive; second easily. The first two fought it out through the last quarter and King's Pet finished strongest and held Dandie Belle safe through the last sixteenth. The latter hung at the end. I Know was crowded out of it at the start and Hayden had to pull up and go all around his field. I Know was best and would have won but for this. Guatemala was practically left at the post. Oricus, too, was off badly. John Todd had the best of the start, but it availed nothing. Innominatum was badly cut off in the last eighth.

Winner—B. h. by His Highness or Ludwig—Early Blossom. Went to post at 5:02. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily; second driving. Rare Perfume caught Rose Bird at the head of the stretch and after a hard drive came away in the last sixteenth. He was pulled up at the start and had to go all around his field to get up. He bore in and bumped Rose Bird repeatedly in the run home, but was the best. Rose Bird improved suddenly and ran a good race. Frandoo and Lady Ezzel had a rough journey. Tamarin also was out off in the first quarter. Tusculum pulled up lame. The field was pulling up when the flag fell.

Overweights—Micou, 3 pounds; Friendship, 2.

Rare Perfume, show, 1 to 2. Rose Bird, show, 4 to 5. Frandoo, show, 8 to 5. Lady Ezzel, show, 1 to 2. Tusculum, show, 1 to 2.

YANKEE'S BREEDING.

"The pronounced triumph of Yankee in the Futurity is the triumph of progressive breeding. The colt is from the loins of the great racehorse, Hanover, and out of a celebrated race mare, Correction, the sister of Domino. In 1897 and again in 1898 Hanover, who was the champion racehorse of his day, stood at the head of winning stallions. He was by Hindoo, a champion of his day (son of Virgil and Florence by Lexington), out of Bourbon Belle, daughter of Bonnie Scotland and Ella D. by Vandal. Correction is by Himyar (son of Alarm and Hira by Lexington), dam Mannie Gray, by Enquirer (he by Leamington—Lida, by Lexington; second dam Lizzie G., by War Dance (son of Lexington and Reel). Le Compte, who ran four-mile heats against Lexington at New Orleans in April, 1855, was the sire of the dam of Lizzie G. Domino was a phenomenal race horse and had he lived would have become one of our greatest sires of speed," says Turf, Field and Farm. "The thoroughly alive members of the lines whose superiority has been established by the fierce fires of conflict are welded in Yankee, and for this reason his success is gratifying to the students and advocates of scientific breeding. He sold for $20,000 under the hammer as a yearling, but has already demonstrated that he was worth the money. The best is the cheapest, regardless of price, in the heroic battles for the highest honors of the turf. Crit Davis, who was a successful trainer and driver of trotting horses when John E. Madden fought his way down the Grand Circuit line, watched the saddling of Yankee on Saturday and quietly remarked: 'I do not see how they can beat him.' These old trotting horse trainers seem to have a keen eye for merit in the thoroughbred horse. They certainly know how to prepare him for a race."

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1901 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1900; four handicap systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1900 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1900. Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:
